Callan Says He'll Meet With High School Board

Thomas J. Callan Sr., supervisor from this district, indicated yesterday he will attend Monday night's board of trustees meeting of the Jefferson high school district.

The controversial supervisor, only recently "deposed" from the board by Attorney General Edmund Brown, who insists Callan's jobs as trustee of the school district and supervisor are "incompatible," said, "I haven't yet been notified officially by the county school superintendent. Until that time I'll continue attending the meeting of the board as a regular member."

At Monday's meeting the board is scheduled to open bids for the cafeterial addition to the Jefferson school.

Callan also announced yesterday that he would seek to have approximately 25 acres of land purchased somewhere in the north county for a park site.

At present the four other supervisors are making plans for purchase of a 400-acre site in Pedro Valley. Callan calls this "nonsense."

According to Callan, "only forty acres of the land are level. People don't want to have to travel all the

THE TOWN RECORD

By MONTE DAYTON

Oh, what to do, is the pitiful plaint of the Daly City police department. The local gendarmerie is currently in possession of a parking ticket given to A. M. HARRISON, local plumberman.

Particulars of the story are: GERTRUDE JOHNSTONE, mother of local policeman DAVE JOHNSTONE, called the plumbers recently to get a badly stopped up sink unstopped. Harrison came post haste to her home at 6238 Mission, jumped out of the truck and went up to undo the damage. Meanwhile another zealous gentleman, Officer DEAN WOOD of the traffic ticket detail, spots the Harrison vehicle parked in a bus loading zone and does his constabulary duty.

End of story.

ALICE, better known as "PAT" VAN OVER, gadabout town personality and member of thisandthat organization, is confined to French hospital, suffering with partial paralysis of her legs. Being busy is Pat's favorite hobby, but she's going to be taking it a little easier for a while.

RAY OTTOBONI, Colma Nurseryman, was a little disturbed this week at what he saw back of his pistol range near Mt. Olivet cemetery. Seems he espied seven or eight small deadly-looking missiles lying there. He describes them as about two inches in diameter, six inches long, with propellors attached at the end. Maybe the U. S. government will come to the rescue with an explanation.

Just for the public edification, it has been semi-officially announced that City Attorney FRANK BLUM has had the honor of beating the socks off Planning Commissioner FRED BERTETTA in the Scot's game of golf. Frank deemed it proper to let this be known, since he reports it to be a rare and almost singular instance.

On the subject of golf, Police Chieftain ROLAND PETROCCHI has placed himself on the hook by announcing that he will take over

Double Holdups At Stumble Inn May Be Solved

The case of the repititious holdups at the Stumble Inn in Colma may be solved.

Sheriff Earl B. Whitmore announced this week that he had received information from San Francisco police that one member of a gang of four, led by Gene V. Koster, a wealthy San Francisco hotel owner, has confessed to participating in the two holdups earlier this year.

The tavern was first held up on January 21, and again on February 16. Both times members of the gang wore silk stocking masks over their faces and each time they only managed to escape with a small amount after searching the bar customers.

Whitmore said he had received no further information other than that Koster and two others had been arrested in Amarillo, Texas, and were being questioned about several recent strong-arm robberies. A fourth member of the gang, arrested by San Francisco police in Koster's hotel, had reportedly admitted the Colma robberies.

A 34-year-old Sharp Park resident insisted it was all a mistake when local police arrested him at a roadblock at 4 a.m. Wednesday morning.

The block was set up after Nino Lo Schiavo, San Mateo county sheriff's dispatcher, had received a strange and anonymous telephone call.

The mystery caller said that Frank Spellman, who owns a Sharp Park towing service, had threatened to hook an auto wreck on the back of his tow truck and drive through Daly City.

Spellman was quoted as saying he would shoot police with his rifle if they tried to stop him.

Officers found a 30-30 rifle and 19 rounds of ammunition in his truck.

Spellman denied the threat, explaining he always carried a rifle and said his mission was a peaceful one.

Police kept him in the jail for five and a half hours on a technical holding charge of "en route to Redwood City" and then released him.

Police Chief Roland Petrocchi said Spellman has been denied permission to pick up wrecks in this city because he does not have a proper license.

Spellman, who does occasional rescue work for the sheriff's office, lives at 1095 San Francisco boulevard in Sharp Park.

Last December Spellman was the hero of a spectacular descent down Devil's Slide in search of possible victims of auto plunges.

Benjamin Franklin Elementary School Will Soon Be Ready

Kennedy Is Chairman Of Chest X-Ray Drive

William Kennedy has been appointed general chairman of the Daly City Chest X-ray program which begins Saturday, April 4.

Free chest X-rays will be offered to every adult resident of the county 15 years of age and over in an effort to find all unknown cases of tuberculosis in this area.

The X-ray program will be sponsored by: San Mateo County Medical Society, San Mateo County Department of Public Health, San Mateo County Tuberculosis & Health Assn.

In accepting the appointment, Kennedy declared that the success of the X-ray program will demand the cooperation of every adult in the county.

"It is important that every adult be X-rayed if a really successful job of searching out hidden tuberculosis here is to be done," he said. "Although tuberculosis has no obvious symptoms in the early stages, the X-ray can show up the slightest damage done to the lungs by the disease."

He expressed confidence that the public spirit of Daly City citizens would be shown in 100 per cent cooperation with the program to control the spread of tuberculosis.

"This is a community enterprise in which everyone of us has a stake. We all want to be sure that we aren't endangering our own health and that of those near to us. By cooperating in the chest X-ray program we will be protecting the heatlh of the community and striking a blow in the worldwide fight to defeat tuberculosis."

Three units of the U. S. Public Health Mobile X-ray Units will be located at convenient places throughout the Daly City area. The exact locations and time will be announced with a few days.

Wife Accuses Husband Of Bad Conduct At Home

Norbert Francis Sherwood, 488 Woodrow street, was picked up by local police Monday afternoon after neighbors reported he was beating his wife.

Police rushed to the Sherwood residence, after the neighbors reported the commotion at the home.

Sherwood's wife signed a complaint charging him with disturbing the peace and being drunk.

Sherwood was released Tuesday on $50 bail and is scheduled to appear in municipal court on Tuesday at 10 a.m.

OWNER OF FORMER GAMBLING DEN IS UP FOR TAX COUNT

Emilio Georgetti, one time owner of the notorious Willows Club in Colma, a high brow gambling establishment, has posted $2500 bail on a federal grand jury indictment charging evasion of income tax.

Georgetti is accused by the jury of evading tax payment of $54,800 for the years 1946-47. The government also seeks $440,333 in civil liabilities for tax claimed due for the years 1946-47 in addition to earlier years. Liens have been placed on his property for this amount.

Georgetti, who formerly lived at 15 Castillian way, San Mateo, a home which he still owns, faces a maximum penalty of 30 years in prison and a fine of $60,000 if found guilty of the charges.

Georgetti's taxes were under probe a few years back, and they came up again when the natty gambler testified as a "cooperative witness" before the Kefauver committee behind closed doors in 1950.

In 1950 Georgetti told of his close relationship with late Sheriff James McGrath, and shortly after revenue agents and the justice department began collecting a detailed account of Georgetti's complex financial transactions.

"Gamba" (Italian for legs), as he was nicknamed, was reputedly the San Mateo county gambling czar.

IN JUST A FEW HOURS IT'S SPRING — RECORD TO RUN GARDEN NEWS

At approximately 5:01 p.m. today (Friday) marks the first day of Spring.

Despite the contrary attitude of the weather man, who predicts continued showers throughout the weekend, the vernal season has arrived.

To start off this season right, THE RECORD'S home gardening section will make its debut next week. Watch for the beginning of this weekly feature containing pertinent and interesting data on gardening.

Doelger Company Awarded Contract For Supplying Loam

Contract for furnishing loam for landscaping of the community center was awarded to Henry Doelger Company by the city council Monday night.

The Doelger firm's bid of $1875 was the lowest submitted. Breakdown of unit prices showed $1725 for furnishing loam, $150 for spreading.

Other bids submitted were: Philip Geufile, $2037.50; A. Amanino, $2142.50; Dolan Wrecking company, $2425.50.

Sen. Parkman Adds Opposition To Tax Increase In State

SACRAMENTO, March 19 — Senator Harry L. Parkman of San Mateo county a member of the finance committee—of the upper house, this week added his opposition to any state tax increase, and called for a cut in the proposed current budget by $39 million.

"If we are to attract industry to San Mateo county and California in general for a well-balanced economy," Parkman declared, "we must, of necessity, keep our taxes commensurate if not lower than competitive states."

The senator pointed out that California is already the greatest tax-spending state in the nation, and that despite the growing market for manufactured products, Eastern concerns are reluctant to build factories in the state because of this high tax rate.

Bodien Asks More Services For Area

The need for more adequate county services in this area was stressed by Arthur J. Bodien, superintendent of the local water department at yesterday's (Thursday) luncheon meeting of the Daly City Chamber of Commerce.

Bodien urged that the chamber work to obtain a more centrally located county seat, or, at least, a branch office here where citizens could make license and tax transactions.

The chamber made tentative plans yesterday to hold a testimonial dinner for Jefferson high's championship basketball team. The event will take place in approximately three weeks.

Fred Jacobson, representative of the state Chamber of Commerce, spoke briefly yesterday and commended the local chamber for their progress.

Close Annex Hearing; Decision Due Monday

City Approves Use Of Council Chamber By Old Glory Post

The city council acted favorably Monday night on the request of Old Glory Post No. 2044, VFW, to use the council chambers as a regular meeting place.

The post asked use of the chambers on Friday nights.

In giving their approval the council stipulated that meetings scheduled there by civic groups would take priority, however.

The Post will begin holding meetings at the chambers on March 27, and will continue to meet there on the second and fourth Friday of the month.

Mayor Anthony Gaggero said that there was no reason why other organizations might not also make use of the council chambers in the future.

Richard R. Liberty, spokesman for the Old Glory Post, said at the close of the meeting:

"We of Old Glory Post wish to extend our sincerest thanks to the Daly City council for the privilege bestowed on us by allowing the use of the chambers."

Liberty pointed out that this constituted the initial step in overcoming "the lethargy that has beset the post in past years, and will make possible greater efforts on the part of the post."

Record April Draft For County Won't Affect Daly City

Despite a record draft call for the county in April, only seven men are expected to be called from Daly City, according to Mrs. Virginia Anderson of draft boards Nos. 57 and 58.

The board announced that the April quota would be for 116 men, the largest in the post-World War II history of the local boards.

Mrs. Anderson said the pool of available men in Daly City was small at present, accounting for the low call in this area.

Indications are that the May quota will again be above the 100 figure as the national call for that month is the same as for April.

To fill the April quota the local boards will probably have to tap the list of 19-year-old eligibles, Mrs. Anderson said.

Board 57, covering north county, will send 71 men into the service on April 23, and board 58, south county, will send 45 men on April 29.

At present the boards have a list ready for 85 men to go into the service on March 31 to fill the March quota. Of this total, 38 are from the north county and 45 are from the southern area.

Mild Cases Of Mumps Are Reported In D. C.

A rash of mumps was reported in Daly City and throughout the county for the month of February, according to report received from the county health office.

A total of eight cases of the disease were reported in Daly City and one case was listed for Colma. A total of 123 cases were recorded for the entire county during the month.

Other instances of diseases in this area were: Daly City, chicken pox, one; measles, one; polio, one; tuberculosis, one; typhoid fever, one. Colma, scarlet fever, one.

The health office has announced that the county X-ray unit will be in Daly City April 4, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11.

Oliver Parker, Pioneer Here, Takes Own Life

Oliver J. Parker, 65, a resident here for 47 years, was found unconscious on the kitchen floor of his home at 563 Vista Grande avenue Sunday night and pronounced dead on arrival at Junipero Serra hospital.

A bottle containing three sleeping pills was found near Parker and an automatic pistol with one bullet in the chamber was in his pocket, according to Officer Arthur Linhares, who made the investigation.

Police said Parker, despondent ever since the death of his wife, Rose, last year, had left two suicide notes.

One note, explaining that he could not go on in life without his wife, was found on the kitchen table.

Police said he had attempted suicide once before. The suicide note was addressed to Mrs. Jeanne Wolf of Larkspur, a sister-in-law.

In addition to Mrs. Wolf, he is survived by a sister, Mrs. Ella E. Nott of San Mateo.

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at 11:30 a.m. from W. C. Lasswell & Co. Interment was at Cypress Lawn Memorial park.

BLOOD-MOBILE TO BE HERE ON APRIL 28th

Dr. John Karsant, chairman of the local blood drive, has announced that the blood-mobile will be in Daly City Tuesday, April 28, at the Eagles hall from 1 to 7 p.m.

The Red Cross will serve donuts and coffee to donors, Dr. Karsant said.

Transportation will be provided free of charge. Those needing a ride should contact Dr. Karsant or Mel Battye, co-chairman.

Hearing on the proposed annexation of the seven-acre Abbey Homestead area near Colma was closed Monday night, with final decision delayed until a later date.

The council, on hearing written protests from 15 homeowners in the area, decided to take the matter under advisement and deliver their decision at the next regular meeting, Monday night.

Mike Callan, one of the original petitioners for annexation, along with the PG&E and William Lagomarsino & Co., talked with protestants after the hearing was closed in an effort to arrive at an agreement.

If property owned by Gustav Wilke and Arthur Schramm, two persons who protested the annexation, is not taken in, Callan's territory and that of the PG&E will not be contignous with the city and therefore not eligible to be taken in.

Chief complaint voiced by those who protested was that they were not notified of the annexation action by Callan.

The PG&E plans to construct a million dollar sub-station on their site. If the plant is incorporated as a part of Daly City it will bring an estimated $5000 yearly tax revenue to the city.

Mayor Anthony Gaggero said the council would have to speak further with Callan on the matter of water facilities for the area proposed to be annexed.

Callan originally planned to bring in water from the California Water Service, but the council seeks to have the area supplied by the Daly City water department.

Gaggero said Callan has expressed a willingness to use the Daly City water, but as yet no formal agreement has been reached.

Those whose written protests were made at the Monday hearing were: J. P. and Emma Ordonez, Gordon and Maxine Parwell, Arthur Schramm, Gustav and Elsie Wilke, Dionizio, Onorato and Giovanni Caserza, and Giovanni, Assunta, Andrew, John and Maria Podesta.

WOMAN IN JAIL ON TWO CHARGES RIPS BEDDING—NOW THREE

Evidently not pleased with the surroundings at Daly City's jail, Mrs. Nathan Beavers, 271 Los Banos avenue, vented her anger on the bedding there Friday, tearing a hole in a blanket and ripping a mattress.

Mrs. Beavers was brought into the local pokey much earlier in the morning that same day, Friday the 13th, after being picked up on charges of being intoxicated and making a disturbance on the peace of her neighborhood.

For her unlucky Friday's activities, Mrs. Beavers will appear in Judge Thomas L. Bocci's municipal court Tuesday to enter her plea.

Besides the drunk and disturbance charges, she will also have to answer a complaint of malicious mischief for damaging the furnishings at the local jail to the extent of $22.38.

Double Sessions End Seen By Next Autumn

Double sessions at the local elementary schools should end in less than a year.

This was the opinion voiced yesterday by H. Z. Weibel, superintendent of the Jefferson elementary district.

Weibel said the 1731 children now attending double sessions will go on regular study schedules as soon as the new Colma school is completed.

This is expected sometime next autumn, he said.

Meanwhile, a partial end to double sessions will be brought about when school resumes after Easter vacation, April 6.

The nearly-completed Benjamin Franklin school, located on Stewart avenue just off Maddux drive in Broadmoor, will accommodate 256 children in its four rooms.

All seventh grade classes from the old Colma school will be transferred to the new site, thus allowing the eighth grade classes and one sixth grade class at the older school to resume regular sessions.

Children at the new school will continue on double sessions, Weibel said.

Eight teachers will be taken from the Colma school to instruct at the new site. Miss Marjorie Tobias, principal of Colma school, will remain principal of the new addition.

In stating that an end to double sessions is in the foreseeable future, Weibel further explained that the situation would only be temporary, since the growing population may overtake the existing facilities by next September.

The money recently voted by the residents of the district should help offset this problem, however, he pointed out.

Special meeting of the elementary school board will be held tomorrow (Saturday) morning at 9 o'clock at the district office to discuss expenditure of the bond money.

The board will attempt to decide on the priority of certain projects, Weibel said.

JAMES L. SNELL MEMBERS HEAR VICE INSPECTOR

Speaking with the emphasis of one who knows the drug situation from first hand experience, Lt. Paul Jensen, chief inspector, department of vice, division of narcotics, San Mateo county sherrif's office, told the assembled members of the James L. Snell PTA that, in his opinion, the only solution to the vicious practice of peddling narcotics to juveniles was the death penalty. "If necessary I will wage a one-man campaign," he went on, "but I welcome any and all who will join me."

Callan Will Meet With H. S. Board

way out there for recreation," Callan said. "Why not have a park close to home?"

Tuesday Callan spoke out against purchase of Butano forest as a state park. Explaining that he was in favor of buying the "forest," Callan said he wouldn't support the purchase of 700 acres of land without trees.

The supervisor said of the land up for purchase, only 300 acres is forested, while 700 is devoid of trees.

Friction between this district's supervisor and the remaining board members burst into uncontrolled anger Tuesday when Callan declared his belief that the "entire Butano forest is not worth the county's memorial park."

Callan indicated, "I can stop you (the other supervisors) from going into Butano if I want to. The road going in there runs right through my property and I could block the road off if I wanted to."

He said, "The people ought to know they're buying about 700 acres of sagebrush and 300 acres of trees. I think the park should be east of the proposed location where there are some trees."

FREEWAY DRIVING

Sen. Parkman Adds Opposition To Tax Increase In State

"If the Legislature can cut the budget by $39 million and use $47 million of the $66 million now in the state treasury," Parkman said, "there will be no necessity for a tax increase this year, and we will have a surplus of $19 million at June 30, of this year. This savings," he added, "will definitely be needed to provide at least a small part of what we will need if we are to balance the 1945-55 budget without new taxes, and if expenditures continue as proposed."

The San Mateo county senator is an exponent of state government living within its means, and has advocated against deficit financing in both city and state government.

"I think it is time that the legislature looked to the abolition of this type of deficit financing," he declared.

Trends in the present legislature indicate that every effort will be made to cut Governor Warren's $1,300,000,000 budget, and keep taxes at their present rate. The senate finance committee, of which Parkman is a member, is already on record for the move, and the assembly revenue and taxation committee took a similar stand last week.

In past years the sports-minded pair have sponsored youth teams, but costs (especially injuries to players) have made the financing of a team prohibitive this year. Some sort of all-inclusive league insurance for player injuries might be in order to bring sponsors like Vince and Fred back into the fold.

The Lesser Of Two Evils

We can't understand the compatibility of the statement by the county manager that county taxes will remain the same this year, and the fact that heads of county departments have made requests for 77 new positions.

The civil service commission has also started a survey of salaries in all classified county positions, with a view to possible revision of the county salary ordinance.

However, the county manager has at least announced that the board of supervisors would probably not authorize any sweeping raises in salaries nor wholesale hirings.

This would just leave the taxpayers with the horrifying thought of paying salaries for 77 new employees, at an estimated cost of about $300,000 a year.

It's an impossibility to add nearly a half-a-million dollars in costs to the county bill without a considerable boost in taxes.

Therefore, we suggest the county continue its operations with the present staff which, though hardly efficient, are at least less expensive by dint of their limited numbers.

California Kicks Through Again

That unsavory day, March 15, is now past and, as a result, residents of San Mateo county have kicked through with $145,359,000 as their share of the state's $3,000,000,000 federal individual income tax bill for this year.

But that's only the half of it.

In addition, the taxpayers of the Golden State shell out about $3,000,000,000 of indirect federal taxes in corporation, excise, and other federal taxes included in the price of things they buy.

And, as unpleasantly as these words may fall on taxpayers' ears, the federal government is expected to go into debt some $6,000,000,000—about the same amount as Californians are paying in taxes—despite the present high level of federal taxes.

If no cuts are made, federal spending for next year, as proposed in the $78,600,000,000 budget now before congress, will put the U. S. about $10,000,000,000 deeper into debt.

The habit of wastrel management of funds for the past dozen or so years, has made it difficult for the ship of state to embark on a course of efficient spending.

But—now the new regime does have the opportunity to cut spending—and to cut taxes, too.

Of course, without reduced spending, tax cutting could be highly dangerous and definitely inflationary.

So, therein lies the key.

The U. S. government should limit its spending to income, pare off the bureaucratic fat, restore to Congress control of the purse strings, and launch an intelligent procedure of congressional fiscal control.

By doing this—then, only, can taxes be reduced.

And when the day comes when an appreciable tax cut is made, it will truly be a blessing to the millions who have almost become accustomed to working a day a week to finance the government.

A Little Help In The Right Places

Seldom have the citizens of San Mateo county had the rare opportunity as this weekend's Legion Circus gives them to contribute so much to so many, and to do it so pleasantly.

From the child welfare fund underprivileged kids are helped, sometimes with lunch money, sometimes with school expenses; Boy Scout Troops and Cub Scout Packs are sponsored, some 30 in all; and 20 boys a year get a week long visit to the state capital in Sacramento and benefit from Boys' State.

Veterans, suffering hard luck, are helped back on their feet with aid from the veterans rehabilitation fund. And the dreary life of the hospitalized vet at the Palo Alto veterans hospital is cheered by gifts and sporting excursions away from the hospital—a result of the patients and hospital welfare fund.

Because volunteer help worth thousands of dollars is donated by the Legionnaires who are proud of their welfare program, the money involved goes an extraordinary long way. No money is spent for administrative overhead with the result that every dollar in the fund is made to do double or triple duty.

Can there be a better way of repaying a little of the debt we owe the more unfortunate of our service veterans, and of helping the boys and girls who will be our citizens of tomorrow? Can there be more pleasant entertainment for the whole family than this new, 22-act circus?

If your answer is the same as ours we'll see you at the San Mateo Fiesta building, Saturday or Sunday.

A Loophole In This Law

If the State Legislature passes a bill proposed by Assemblyman Julian Beck of San Fernando, the occupational dangers attendant to the work of newspaper camera men should be reduced considerably. The bill would provide penalties against camera smashers and others who pick on photographers and reporters just for covering the news.

Similar legislation has already been enacted in New York and Pennsylvania. Even if the measure is passed, however, we would advise the newsmen to be ready to duck at all times.

No legal statute is a sure defense against a punch in the nose.

FIRE FIGHTERS' FACTS

By Mel Hanson
Fire Prevention Bureau

Spring clean-up week will soon be here and we thought it a good idea to write a story telling how spring clean-up week started.

Because of a blue pinafore given to a little girl 44 years ago, some 10,000 American communities will observe spring clean-up week this year.

The story begins in Cleveland, in 1909. A school teacher in a poor district noticed that one little girl in her class, who came to school in rags, was attractive despite her unkempt hair and dirty face. Acting on impulse, the teacher brought a new pinafore to school and presented it to the child, then washed her face and combed her hair. The youngster was transformed from an urchin to a pretty little girl.

When she returned to her dingy room on a dirty, unpaved street, the contrast between their daughter and the family surroundings was all too obvious to her parents. Silently, in the days that followed, they began tidying up the house, repairing the fence, planting flowers in the yard.

Neighbors notice this activity, and began repairing the wooden sidewalks and fences in front of their homes, planting flowers, painting sashes. Before long, what was formerly a slums became a respectable part of town.

The idea caught on, and other communities who heard the story followed suit. In 1913, Cincinnati tried the first city-wide clean up drive, a week-long campaign led by civic groups and school children. Today, it has been adopted by cities and towns all over the nation, who have discovered that cleaning up rubbish lowers the number of fires, and wipes out danger spots for disease and delinquency, as well as making every community a more attractive place in which to live.

Can Be Dangerous

Using a blow-torch to remove paint is a dangerous practice, warns the national board of fire underwriters. Just as dangerous, or even more so, are paint removers containing volatile, flammable liquids or solvents. A new product is now on the market called, "Liquid Sand Paper." This product is good, if used with caution. It is highly flammable and several fires have been caused by it. Instead, it is suggested removing old paint by safer methods, such as scraping, sanding, wire brushing, or using an electric paint remover of a type listed by the Underwriters Laboratories, Inc. Any type with the U. L. label is safe.

Where's the Fire?

We were very fortunate this week in not having any fires. We did, however, have two lock-outs.

Things To Come

The quarterly chiefs drill will be held on March 19 at 7 p.m. The annual Widows' and Orphans' Ball will be held May 9, 1953, at the new War Memorial building.

Answers Are Given To Questions Asked In Red Cross Drive

The same questions are being asked over and over by residents being called on by some 2500 solicitors for the current Red Cross fund campaign. Following are answers to a few of the most common questions, according to Red Cross officials.

The San Mateo county chapter was NOT connected with the United Crusade in San Francisco, received NO MONEY from that drive. National Red Cross aided over 32,000 families in 300 disasters in 1952 at a cost of over 19 million dollars. Disaster relief supplies are NEVER sold . . . they are outright gifts. Red Cross cigaretes, clothing, etc. were GIVEN . . . never sold . . . to servicemen. A few did, however, fall into the hands of black marketeers and were sold. Red Cross collected nearly 9000 pints of blood in San Mateo county last year. Blood collected by Red Cross is GIVEN . . . never sold . . . to recipients, servicemen or civilians. The president of National Red Cross, E. Roland Harriman, is NOT paid. A salary may be voted by the Board of Governors for a president whose private income is inadequate. Part of such salary is income from a foundation contributed for the purpose by friends of Red Cross and J. P. Morgan Co. Only four presidents in the history of the organization have ever accepted pay. Paid workers are outnumbered 100 to 1 by volunteers. Volunteer Boards set salaries of paid workers, well below that of comparable jobs in private industry. Red Cross books are audited by the Department of the Army and by CPA's each year and reported to Congress. In 1952 Red Cross gave over 15 million dollars in financial assistance to servicemen and their families in emergencies.

Cars More Danger To Life Than Guns

"If you think loaded firearms are dangerous, take another look at the family car."

This statement was made today by Archie Offield, chairman of the San Mateo county traffic safety commission, who found some interesting satistics at the county coroner's office.

"In the last ten years, in San Mateo county, 103 persons have been killed by gunshot wounds: 5 accidentally, 79 suicides and 19 murders. "While in the same period," Offield stated, "648 people have been killed by motor vehicles."

"In 1952 alone, firearms caused the death of only nine persons, (eight suicides and one murder), while 53 lost their lives in traffic."

Traffic has already claimed the lives of eight persons, this year, on our county's streets and highways, and with the peak traffic season still approaching, Offield warned that 1953 might produce an all-time record in traffic deaths unless every driver realizes that his vehicle is not only a medium of transportation, but can be a deadly weapon.

"The automobile," Offield added, "is the same as the gun. Neither can kill anyone by itself. It must be improperly handled by a human to cause death or injury."

GI Hears About Daly City From Buddies; Seeks Correspondence With Nice Girls

Dear Sir:

I am now on active duty here in Korea. For the past several months I've heard much about your fair city from buddies of mine residing or stationed nearby.

Would you be so kind as to place my letter in your paper as I desire correspondence with some nice girls of your city. Unfortunately, under the circumstances in which I am now I can't enclose any pictures. However, I would like photos from any one who would care to write.

Respectfully yours,

YOUR COUNTY'S BUSINESS

While a meager few county officials in the courthouse would have a special 1-cent retail sales tax levied here, the majority of governmental officials stand firmly against the plan.

Four members of the board of supervisors and County Manager E. R. Stallings favor two measures now before the legislature. The supervisors are Martin A. Poss, San Mateo; Edward R. McDonald, Burlingame; William Werder, Redwood City; and Chairman Alvin S. Hatch.

McDonald said he was "not keen" about the tax, but that it appeared the "only way to take pressure off the property owners."

Steadfast Opposition

But then, on the other hand, councilmen of San Mateo and the managers of this city and San Bruno, and several tax groups, are steadfastly opposed to the proposition.

A San Mateo county civic league spokesman declared that while the idea "may have some merit," the league—long a group to keep a keen eye on the county treasury—will be definitely opposed to it if the purpose is to expand county and city services beyond those offered now.

Explains Purpose

County Manager Stallings, who has followed the progress of the legislation closely, explained the purpose of the bill this way:

"The sales tax should mean a direct saving in property tax equivalent to the amount raised by the tax. That is the purpose of the bill, to reduce the burden on property owners which is becoming increasingly heavy."

Whether Stallings meant that the tax would mean a substantial lowering of taxes on real and personal property was not specified.

Only last month, at the time when the machinery which prepares the annual county budget went into gear, Stallings stated: "It looks like the normal increase in assessed valuation should be sufficient to finance the mandatory load increase at the present tax rate."

In other words, Stallings has indicated taxes will remain on a plane next year with those of this year.

No Concrete Evidence

But the manager hasn't given any concrete estimate of possible potential tax reductions were the sales tax to become a reality.

In San Mateo, City Councilman Edward Reilly voiced the most vehement protest to the penny tax:

"I have always been opposed to an increased sales tax and I am opposed to this measure now. Such a tax would take away the home rule of the counties. We should decide the question locally."

Reilly, in a stormy mood, said, "The county should pay attention to a new reassessment program to bring the assessments in line with property values rather than sponsor an increased sales tax."

Walter Cribbins, president of the San Mateo Minute Men, was adamant in his opposition to the proposal.

"We have too many taxes now. Personaly, I am definitely against it and I am sure the Minute Men directors will oppose the cent increase also."

NO TRAFFIC DEATHS FOR CITY IN 1952

Daly City was among 52 California cities listed by the California safety council this week as having gone through 1952 without a single traffic death.

Two other county cities, Hillsborough and San Bruno, were listed among the communities having no traffic fatalities for the year.

One pedestrian was killed in Daly City in 1951, and no deaths from traffic accidents took place during 1952.

State Patrol Asks Driver Courtesy To Prevent Accidents

The California Highway Patrol today recommended highway courtesy as a traffic accident preventative, adding that if it were universally practiced, officers would probably be writing fewer tickets.

Patrol Chief E. Raymond Cato told motorists that courtesy and good driving manners would automatically eliminate accident-causing violations.

"A courteous driver," he said, "won't cut off another vehicle, race through a blind intersection, hog the center of the road or blind other drivers with his high beams, even if he doesn't know those unsafe habits are against the law."

Chief Cato said there were other cases where courtesy could prevent accidents, even though no particular law were involved.

For example, when a motorist heads for an accident by passing without sufficient room, a courteous driver will slow down and let him back into line, although it's not required by law.

Cato said March had been designated as "motor manners" month on a nationwide basis and that highway courtesy represented one of the most positive steps a driver could take in the interest of his own safety.

"It's a matter of driving as we would like the other fellow to drive," he concluded.

Roy Rogers' Horses Head Circus Act

Roy Rogers Liberty horses, the famous Goldwyn movie lions, Cleda Man's aerial ballet, Clark's bears, The Mandarins — these and 17 other outstanding acts make up this weekends Lehr-Simmons Circus which plays in San Mateo under auspices of the American Legion.

Sponsored by the 26th District (San Mateo county) Legion, one of the country's best known circus troupes will perform twice daily, Saturday and Sunday. The "big top" is the Fiesta building, just off El Camino on 25th avenue, in San Mateo, next to Bay Meadows.

Who Benefits

Benefitting from the show are the welfare programs of the American Legion. The local post, along with 17 other posts in the county, is sponsoring the circus for the benefit of the Legion's child welfare, veterans rehabilitation, and patients and hospital welfare funds.

Shows will start at 2 and 8 p.m. each day. Tickets, which may be purchased at the door, or from any Legionnaire in the county, are $1.80 general admission, $2.40 reserved seats, and 60c for children under 12.

Ringmaster Raynor Lehr, brother of the late funnyman, Lew Lehr, and Don Simmons, another 30-year veteran in show business, have assembled an all new show. Using acts from throughout the world, Lehr and Simmons have worked for months putting together and polishing the show which will have its 1953 premiere here.

MY MAD WORLD

by Leonore Brewer

If you were kind enough to read last week's column, you may recall that I had just taken a deep breath and was firmly launched on the March 17-22 appearances of the Slavenska-Franklin-Danilova Ballet, only to be strangled by lack of space. Today brings a fresh column, and time to recall the golden days of the past, when these three were only part of the Ballet Russe.

I can still remember the first time I saw them, and what they danced, despite the fact that with the short vision of youth, heedless of the threat that time would rush by and memory would dull, I failed to keep the program. Ballet, especially Danilova in all her glory, became part of my world, never to leave it again.

There was a subsequent performance, likewise Ballet Russe, when I saw The Spectre of the Rose, with the part of the young girl danced by Toumanova. Who danced the Rose? I don't recall. All that memory retains is the sense of vast emptiness I felt when, unlike the legendary Nijinsky, the miserable fellow didn't rise from the center of the stage to soar effortlessly through the rear window. To my prejudiced eyes, his elevation was nonexistent. This wasn't what I had come to see. This could never have inspired an encore of the entire ballet, as I had been assured had once happened in Paris. Quite possible it was a very good performance, but it was ruined for me by a mad shadow, who hadn't danced within the memory of my generation. The depth of my disappointment was fathomless.

I hadn't yet learned that every generation has its Karsavina, Danilova, Fonteyn, its Nijinsky or Youskevitch, and for that generation they are the ultimate. As year vanishes into year, they illuminate the past with so bright a radiance that the present is shadowed by them. Since then I have accepted that the past is past, and must be seen in a mirror that reflects reality, not a dream.

And where is all this leading us? To the guest appearance of Alexandra Danilova. See her, and then twenty or thirty years from today when someone praises the current prima ballerina, you will be able to shake your head and say, "Yes, she's good, but you should have seen Danilova!"

NEWS NOTES FOR VETERANS

Veterans of service in the armed forces since the Korean conflict started were reminded today by Floyd D. Granger, Veterans Service Officer of San Mateo county, that they are eligible, along with veterans of other service periods, for the $1,000 property tax exemption provided by the state constitution.

Men and women who served in any recognized war or campaign period can apply for the exemption on up to $1,000 of their property valuation if their total holdings are valued at less than $5,000, Granger said.

The exemption was extended to Korea veterans in 1951, he noted. It must be reapplied for by all veterans each year.

This year's filing period for the exemption runs from Monday, March 2, through Monday, May 25, the service officer pointed out. He urged all eligible veterans to act early in getting their applications to the Assessor's office.

Veterans applying for the first time must show proof of their status in the form of their separation notice or other record of service in the armed forces.

Ex-servicemen who aren't able to call in person at the Assessor's office may have their wives file for the exemption in their behalf, Granger added.

The property tax exemption can be allowed to the widow, widowed mother, or pensioned mother and father of a veteran under certain conditions. Granger said full information on these contingent exemptions can be obtained at the Assessor's office or at the Veterans Service Office, 517 Marshall street in Redwood City, directly in back of the courthouse.

YOUR NEIGHBORS AND MINE

By Betty Brush

There really is a lot happening in this town of ours. MRS. FRANCES SUNDLOF of Woodrow street has just returned from a three weeks vacation. She went to New Orleans where she visited her daughter and family and got acquainted with her new granddaughter, Barbara Lynne. While in New Orleans she took in the Mardi Gras which she says was marvelous. On returning home she brought her son JERRY, who had been in New Orleans for four weeks.

Neighbors, do you know that we have a TV and night club entertainer in our midst? MISS BETTIE DUFFY, a Jefferson alumnus, has been entertaining at all the best places in town now for some time. In addition to her professional duties, Bettie finds time to entertain the boys in the Veterans Hospitals and hold down a secretary's position too. Gee, it must be great to be young.

Congratulations In Order

There was a birthday party for JIM WOOD, father of our cop, DEAN WOOD, given at the home of his daughter, MRS. MELVA RODRIGUEZ, this week. Mr. Wood came to Daly City in 1933 from South Dakota and resides at 35 Hillcrest drive. Jim is celebrating his 71st birthday on the 7th of this month and Dean also has a birthday to celebrate on the 11th. Wonder how old Dean is? Seems he won't talk.

MR. and MRS. GEORGE EVANS of Willits street, would like to take this time to announce the engagement of their son, ROBERT H. EVANS, to MISS ELEANOR DOWDY of San Bruno. Bob grew up in Daly City, went to Jeff and then later on to San Mateo Junior college. He is now employed by the Wade Publishing Co. in San Francisco while his fiancee works for the Travelers Insurance Co. Wedding plans for this young couple will be announced at a later date.

Confirmation was held for the children of Our Lady of Perpetual Help parish this week. In addition to the many children who attend OLPH school there were many who attend the public schools of Daly City. The Sisters and the Fathers are doing a wonderful job with our children, neighbors, and we should all give thanks that we live in a city where the spiritual as well as the educational welfare is uppermost in the minds of those concerned.

Our Boys

MR. and MRS. GEORGE EVANS of Willits street were the happy parents this week who welcomed their son home on leave, GEORGE T. EVANS, a dental technician in the U. S. Navy has been stationed at Oceanside, California, for over a year and a half. He was home on a three-day leave and has since returned to his base where he will soon leave for overseas duty. Good luck, George, and best wishes from "your neighbors and mine."

This is irony for you. JIM EAGEN was all ready for orders home after serving his time overseas in Japan and Korea. While "sweating it out" Jim was bitten by something—just what, even Jim doesn't know. At the present time Jim is in the hospital at Pusan and still waiting for the orders to come home. Let's hope that the effects of the bite wear off soon so that when the orders do come through he can take off for "the old home town" with the best of health and good wishes of all. Let's hope it will be soon, Jim.

BLOOD, WHAT IS IT? Nothing but the staff of life. Whose life? Just your neighbors and mine and all who belong to us. There are many of "your neighbors and mine" who have gone every three months, which is as often as a person can go, to donate the very precious gift of a pint of blood. Not only is it necessary for the boys in the service to have a supply of blood waiting for them when they need it, but did you ever think just what would happen if you needed a transfusion? There are many of your neighbors and mine whom at one time or another in their lives were faced with this problem.

It only takes such a little while to give so much. In giving—ONE NEVER KNOWS JUST WHEN THE GIFT WILL COME BACK TO THE GIVER—at the time most needed. The Blood-mobile will be in Daly City in the near future and this is the opportunity for all those people who have planned for so long to go but for one reason or another put it off or just couldn't get there. Ask any boy who wears the Purple Heart or any just plain citizen who has needed blood how important it is. They can tell you! What we give at the moment—WE CAN DO WITHOUT. What we need at the moment—WE CAN'T DO WITHOUT.

News And Views

HILLCREST CIRCLE No. 143, U.A.O.D., held their regular meeting last Monday night at which they received five new candidates into the circle. The very welcome new members are: MRS. LEOLA BEDELL, MRS. TEADDY COFFELL, MRS. BAUER, MRS. MAGNUSON, and MRS. S. ROUGH. These ladies were received into the Circle with due ceremony and afterwards were served refreshments consisting of salad, sandwiches, cookies and coffee.

Friends and neighbors of San Diego avenue were glad to welcome home last week, Mrs. Hanson, their neighbor of over forty years. MRS. HANSON has been in the hospital for an operation and all her many friends are glad to see her home again. Next time you take a trip, Mrs. Hanson, let's hope that it is to a more joyful place. Best wishes for continued good health to her from all of us.

Another welcome home to a well known gal. MRS. EVE HOBBS of Risel street returned home from the hospital last week. This has been EVE's second trip within a short length of time and all who know her wish her the best of luck and hope it will be her last.

Columnists also get around! Last week MRS. JEANNE LEMON of Los Olivos avenue was the surprised recipient of a visit from CYNTHIA GREY who writes for the San Francisco News. Seems Mrs. Lemon had some very beautiful chrysanthemums in her garden and Cynthia was looking for chrysanthemums. She had advertised in her column and Mrs. Lemon had answered the ad. The two ladies got together and spent some very enjoyable hours discussing the merits of flowers in general and chrysanthemums in particular. Mrs. Lemon reports that Cynthia Grey is just as nice a person as the column she writes.

Attention, All!

There seems to be a new fad among the younger generation at the present time. IT IS NOT A GOOD ONE. The latest thing seems to be for teen-age boys to make a gun out of a piece of pipe, hunk of wood, friction tape, and rubber bands. The mere fact of making the gun is not in itself so bad. The tragedy is that they can and do get shells of different caliber to shoot these "toys" with. Seems I read just last week that two boys met with unfortunate accidents due to homemade guns of this type. I know that the police department has done it's utmost to cure this "fad." I also know that these guns could and would not be shot IF THE BOYS DID NOT GET THE SHELLS.

Who sells them? Why? One merchant cannot do everything to stop the sale of shells to boys. All put together can go a long way toward the remedy of this situation. The boys will be given guns "of the right kind" soon enough. Let's watch what they are doing, neighbors. It may be your son or mine who gets hurt next!

TREES! What is more beautiful than a tree? What more lasting? What lives longer than man and yet reminds man that time is eternity? The Memorials that mere man creates for himself are nothing to what God can and will do if one lets Him. We have the chance to plant our own living Memorial. The Old Glory Post and Auxiliary No. 2044, VFW, is part of a drive for an "ALL OUT PRAYER FOR PEACE." The purpose of this drive is the state-wide planting of a memorial tree in every city that has a VFW post. The tree will have a placque that will read, "Stop and offer a prayer for world peace." What better time to plant this tree than Memorial Day in front of the Memorial Building. What better Memorial to the boys who have gone and to those who are destined to go than for all to get behind this project. There are a few things in this life that cannot be bought, neighbors, and PEACE is one of them. Let's plant our tree—Let's say our praver for the bovs who have gone from the "old home town" and for the future—"WORLD PEACE."

Well NEIGHBORS — another column is ready for the printer. Have heard from many people this week, but have lots of time to hear from many more. If there is something that you would like to see in this column or something that you would like to see left out—just call PL. 5-6482. Once again I would like to say that this is not my column—it is our column. Your neighbors make the news, I just write it up. Let's hear from you. 'Bye Now!

Mother Of 3 Killed

A mother of three children and a young San Francisco marine corps officer met death in a Friday-the-13th tragedy when the cars they were driving crashed head-on at Bayshore highway, a half-a-mile south of Bellehaven underpass, Menlo Park.

Dead was: Mrs. Betty Josephine Ireton, 35, Loma Verde street, Palo Alto, Second Lieut. Vance Sheffey, 24, USMC, son of Attorney and Mrs. Simeon E. Sheffey of 161 Edgewood avenue, San Francisco.

Mrs. Ireton's husband, Vernon, 43, parts salesman for a Palo Alto automobile firm, who was asleep in the front seat beside his wife at the time, escaped with only a slight abrasion of a knee.

Left motherless by the early morning tragedy were the three Ireton children—John, 15; Elsie, 16, and Jack, 19, of Palo Alto.

JEFF ELEMENTARY NEWS

by Rita Randolph

Members of the Jefferson Classroom Teachers Association — Hester Blaylock, Eleanore Carle, Hazel Colwell, Rita Randolph, William Turgis and Cecil Mitchell—were shown through Hillcrest, the County Correction Juvenile Home, by Assistant Director Anthony Lavoi.

Bond Issue Fails

Mr. Lavoi took the teachers through the entire institution and pointed out needs and answered numerous questions until late into the evening. He lamented the fact that the bond issue to increase space and facilities had failed, largely due to the lack of knowledge on the part of the public. It is to be hoped that next year, when a second attempt will be made, that some writer will use his pen to bring the overcrowded, undermanned conditions clearly into focus.

Happy At Bingo

The smiling faces, well nourished bodies, the immaculate cleanliness, and the general atmosphere attested to the good kindly treatment the children receive through the efforts of the staff. All of the children were happily absorbed in a bingo game celebrating St. Patrick's Day, one of the four annual occasions when both sexes meet.

Never a Cake Till Now

Whereas the county pays for the necessities, luxuries such as a birthday gift are not provided for. However, each child does have a birthday cake with candles, perhaps for the first time in his life. Material for sewing is needed and used musical instruments and play equipment is at a minimum.

Inasmuch as there are presently 51 youngsters, with as many as four in a room with no means of isolating neglected youngsters from offenders, together with the fact that they must eat, play, and live in one room, the need of the splendid institution is very great indeed.

Parental Discipline Advocated

The teachers questioned Mr. Lavoi as to the best means of reducing juvenile delinquency, and he promptly answered: "Less pseudo-psychology and prompt punishment when needed." He seems to feel that parental understanding, and talking to the youngsters is desirable, but he also feels that a spanking may be necessary at times and he told of finding it necessary in his own family. "Don't let them get away with it," he said.

Children Censor Pin-ups

The youngsters, particularly the boys, showed their interest in the opposite sex by the nature of the pictures on their bedroom walls. Instead of pulling them down, causing them to "Blow their stacks," the administrators wisely permit the boys to censor each other and the system has improved the type of wall display.

Their Own Publication

The teachers were quite impressed by the typewritten bulletin put out by the secretarial students. Some of it showed real ability although the slang expressions were in some cases a little difficult to comprehend. One section wherein the editors thanked the superintendents for explaining the improvements to be made at Hillcrest IF the bond issue passes, was quite pathetic inasmuch as it failed. Also, the newspaper clippings on the girls' bulletin board from various Charm hints seemed likewise pathetic.

Will You Help Too?

The teachers plan to volunteer funds of their own toward an annual fund in order to provide a birthday gift to each boy and girl, to purchase material for sewing and a few other so-called "luxuries." They hope to interest our cooperative PTA ladies and other teacher organizations to visit Hillcrest and see for themselves the need to pass that bond issue next year. Help these children today and make a good citizen for tomorrow instead of a prison inmate. Please communicate with Mrs. Rita Randolph, teacher at Woodrow Wilson school.

Parents, Children Decide On Attire For June Graduation

A night meeting was held recently in the Colma school for the purpose of discussing and voting on by ballot for the attire to be worn by the June, 1953, graduating class of Colma school.

A well-attended meeting of over 200 parents of the 220 graduating children met to have voice in this discussion concerning their children. A discussion was held and questions answered.

A vote was cast by ballot and tallied with a final decision reached that the girls will wear pastel cotton casual dresses of street length. Their shoes may be any color and are to have low heels, wedgies or cuban heels and long nylon hose. Boys will wear sport outfits consisting of either sport coat or sport jacket, white sport shirt and dress slacks—no jeans and no ties.

This meeting was held early with the thought in mind that parents purchasing Easter clothing could buy something suitable that could be used for both occasions.

The PTA is planning a party for the graduates. Parents will be notified of another parents get-together to discuss these plans. Your cooperation is invited to make this a success so that your child will long remember this event that means so much to a youngster growing up.

Marjorie Tobias, principal of Colma school, announced that graduation exercises would be held June 12 at 8 p.m. in the new community center building.

A committee of mothers volunteered their services to help decorate the hall for this occasion.

Mrs. D. C. Gensel, chairman for this meeting, wishes to thank Miss Majorie Tobias for help and also Mr. Hernlunds for taking care of the ballots and tabulating the count.

Rearsich led the winners with 16 points and George Edwards tallied 12 points to pace the losers.

Menicucci, scoreless all evening, wrapped up the game in the final seconds as he stepped to the free throw line and made good on two charity tosses.

In the opening game of the second half the 12 mile house combo reversed their loss, whipping the Sarto team, 43 to 35. The winners made good on 17 out of 23 free throw tries. Edwards led both teams with 12 points.

Passtime club, after losing a game against Hoyt's Water Heaters last week, came back and walloped Ralph's Cleaners, 64 to 42. Passtime, led by Gregg, ex-city college hoopster, appeared the team to reckon with in the second half of league play as they rang up their lop-sided victory. Gregg scored 17 points, while Cranow, ex-teammate of Gregg's, led the losers wth 15 markers.

Cub Pack 84 Takes A Pair Of Games

Cub Pack 84 of Broadmoor Village won both of its games last Saturday—the A team over Pack 104 by a score of 15 to 6, and the B team over Pack 108 by a score of 22 to 13.

These marked the first official games of the season. All teams, even those that lost, played good ball, but the infield playing of Pack 84's A team was especially proficient. At one time shortstop Don Harris caught a fly ball, then snapped it to second baseman John Taylor, who threw it to Terry Christman at first for a triple play.

Bobby Goodwin pitched the A team game, and Billy Savage pitched the B team to victory. Home runs were hit by Bill Dougherty, Billy Savage, John Souza and Ronald Berry.

Saturday, at 10 a.m., the A team meets Pack 83 at Vincente Park, and at 2 p.m., the B team meets Pack 15 at South Sunset.

The Pack 84 A team is being coached by B. J. Christmas, and the B team by Lee Pitts. Several other fathers assist.

Art Linhares Remains In S.F. City Golf Play

Art Linhares, local policeman, remained in contention for the San Francisco city golf crown last weekend when he blasted from three holes behind on the 15th hole at Harding Park to defeat Walt Gilliam in one of the feature contests of the day.

Linhares' unexpected victory advanced him to Sunday's 36 hole semi-finals against 18-year-old Eddie Meyerson, Menlo JC student up from Los Angeles, who shot the day's best golf, two under par, in downing Syl DeLucca, San Francisco steel inspector, 4 to 2.

Gilliam Sleeps

Four up after 12 holes, three up and three to go after 15 holes, San Mateo's Gililam virtually went to sleep and blew himself out of a chance to remain in the tourney, eventually losing out on the 19th hole.

Gilliam launched his bid on the No. 2 hole by oozing in a 20 footer for a birdie. On the fourth, he intentionally sliced his approach around a tree, stopping three feet from the cup to gain another bird. Linhares took the fifth with a par, but the local cop was lucky to get a halve on the sixth after being trapped.

Gilliam Up Again

Gilliam again went two up with a 12-foot birdie putt on the seventh, after Linhares hooked a drive in the boondocks.

Making the turn, Gilliam was two under par and two up.

Linhares trailed by three when Gilliam parred the 11th. The policeman's tee shot sailed over the green. Then on the 12th Linhares hooked into the foliage and Gilliam took a birdie.

The big San Matean still seemed in on safe ground after three-putting the 13th. They halved the next two, although on the 15th, Gilliam drifted his drive all the way over to the ninth fairway and was forced to hit one back over the trees to recover for a par.

Linhares Rallies

This made it three and three, but Gilliam was again treed on the 16th, failed to reach the short 17th and then chipped poorly as Linhares was sinking a six-footer for a par, and then three putted the 18th after Linhares almost hit the stick on his approach while skipping ten feet past. The three successive losses set things even and they went on to the big extra hole.

Linhares made his approach right spang up to the green, hole high, but bounded 24 feet beyond to the apron. Meanwhile, Gilliam was on the green, though 40 feet away.

Gilliam putted true but strong. It hit the cup, sprang six inches into the air and finally rolled three feet beyond. Using a seven iron for his chip shot, Linhares rolled one that dove straight to the cup, and that ended Gilliam.

Jeff Nine Bows To Polytechnic 9-3

Polytechnic high school nabbed 6 runs in the third inning over Jefferson high school Wednesday, to cash in on a 9-3 victory.

The practice baseball game was played at Big Rec park in San Francisco.

The Jeff's defense fell apart in the third frame when Big Joe Lewkowitz hit two batters, walked another pair, and allowed two hits, while his team mates committed two errors.

Lewkowitz led the Indians in hitting, with two hits in three trips to the plate.

Blanchard, Bogle Win Spots On Honor Teams

Larry Blanchard of Jefferson high, and Charlie Bogle of Burlingame high were named last weekend to All-Northern California basketball teams by two San Francisco daily newspapers.

Blanchard was selected for the second team on the All-North Coast aggregation by one paper, and was named on the All-Northern California honorable mention list by the other.

Bogle won a position as first team center on both All-Northern California quintets. He also was named to the first team on the All-North Coast team.

Crossing a fence with a loaded weapon accounted for three per cent of all hunting accidents in the country last year, says the National Rifle Association.

JEFFS LOSE A COUPLE IN TOURNEY OF CHAMPS

Jefferson high's PAL varsity basketball champs were on the short end for a change last week as they were downed two straight games in the 1953 Tournament of Champions held in Berkeley.

In the opening game Thursday the lifeless Jeff quintet was trampled under by a fast-breaking Oakland Technical high school aggregation, 62 to 42.

Coming back to vie against Santa Cruz Friday in the consolation play, the Jeffs were again bettered, 66 to 47.

In the set-to against Oakland, the locals couldn't seem to hit their hat. Larry Blanchard, runner-up in league scoring, and Tom Costello missed often on set shots, while Don Delbon, fourth high in PAL scoring, failed to get off one shot in the entire first half. Center Wayne Lovelace was no match with the Oakland's 6-foot, 4-inch pivot-man George Sterling covering the boards.

The Oaklanders led 11 to 6 at the end of the first period, 29 to 14 at half-time, and 49 to 27 at the end of the third quarter.

Blanchard led the Indians with 14 points. The Indians scored only 11 field goals to Tech's 26, but made good on 20 out of 33 free throws, while the opposition hit for 10 out of 20.

In the consolation contest Coach Mike Orlich did a lot of shifting around to combat Santa Cruz's 1-3-1 defense, but to no avail.

With Lovelace shifted from center spot to forward, and Don Debon from forward to guard, the Jeffs managed to fashion an 18-17 lead at the outset of the second period.

Scoring 16 points in the second stanza, against eight for the Indians, the Santa Cruz team climbed to a 33-21 half-time lead, then saw their margin climb to 52-32 at the end of the third period.

Blanchard again topped scoring for the locals with 16 markers.

Nearly twice as many hunting accidents are experienced by hunters aged 19 or under than any other 10-year span age group, says the National Rifle Association.

LIONS, TIMOSSI CLOSE GAP IN BOWLING RACE

Two teams moved within one game of league-leading Hilltop Cab this week in the Daly City-Colma bowling circuit.

Daly City-Colma Lions downed Fuller Paints three straight and Timossi Motors did the same to the Brisbane Lions, giving both teams 45-30 records, to tie for second.

The cabmen currently have a 46-30 mark. They took two from Vince and Fred in Tuesday night's play.

In third spot is Central Club with a 44-31 record.

Hilltop cab monopolized the statistics Tuesday, as Lloyd Bradley rolled up individual high game, 245, Paul Bruch hit 618 for high series, and the team scored a 2640 series and 934 game, to claim those departments.

Lots Of Jobs

Heads of county governmental departments in Redwood City have submitted to the county civil service commission requests for 77 new positions. Fifty-five of the requests are for new positions in the health and welfare department.

Department heads and County Manager E. R. Stallings will discuss the requests during the next few weeks and Stallings will make formal recommendations to the board of supervisors, which will either approve or reject the requests.

Modern-Day Fagin

Two young students of a modern-day "Fagin" told officers last week how they had been learning the technique of crime from a 24-year-old Palo Alto man.

The boys, 16 and 17 years old, both of Palo Alto, admitted to sheriff's deputies Forrest Paul and Henry Crossfield and Palo Alto Police Inspector Wallace Lang that they had been taking instruction in crime from James R. Brener, 24, of 540 University avenue, Palo Alto.

Lincoln Playground News

On March 14th the football pentathlon under the supervision of director Harry Redlick was under way. Most boys spent the week before practicing up on their football skills of kicking and passing.

Added to the growing list of entrants were: Bill Whalen, Herb Anderson, Bob Coture, John Walsh and Tom Palmer.

The events were as follows: Passing for accuracy, passing for distance, drop kicking for distance, punting distance and punting for accuracy.

Marchbank Park News

Basketball for the boys and volleyball for the girls are the main activities on Marchbank upper level. Hard fought, well played, pick up games on both sports get underway about 3:45 each afternoon. The basketball mainstays have been Frank and Carl Meechi, Ron Bourdon, Dan Rasmussen and Carl Martinelli, while the volleyball enthusiasts include Luanne Carpenter, Jerry Lunghi, Sandra Gonzales, Arlene Storm and Bunny Baroni.

Recently, the girls took time from their games to crown the Marchbanks girls volleyball serving champion. The championship was shared by Bunny Baroni and Sally Shamphan who both had perfect scores of 10 for 10.

A new activity called "Tip ins" has been met with overwhelming approval by the Marchbanks teenagers. This exciting basketball-volleyball type game has won itself a permanent place in Marchbanks daily program.

The Perpetual Help girls volleyball team, which practices daily at Marchbanks under the capable supervision of the director Frank Ingersol, lost their first interschool contest when they were beaten by the Corpus Christ team on the latter's court. In the two out of three game match each team took one game but the tall Corpus Christi club came on strong to win the deciding contest 21-14.

Sandra Gonzales, Arline Storm, Arline Baroni starred for the losers. The Perpetual Help girls are anxious for an upset when the two teams tangle in a rematch on the Marchbanks Court in the near future.

While the Perpetual Help girls were being trimmed on the volleyball court the Perpetual Help boys lost a close 42-21 basketball contest to the Corpus Christi boys. Again too much height spoiled the chances of victory for the Daly City team. Lee Casentini, Gary Martinelli and Tom Fenn sparked the losers all the way.

Recently an informal Horseshoe tournament was held for boys 13 and under. Eight boys participated in the elimination competition with Henry Oliver beating Joe Stagnero in the finals 21-18.

On the middle level at Marchbanks under the supervision of Director Lorraine Cady the smaller boys and girls have been participating in various types of relays and races. This type of activity enables the children to gain experience in team games.

Janie Reed and her little friends are found frequently playing jump rope on the middle level. This is a game all of the children like to participate in.

Also a number of active small boys enjoyed a lively game of touch football. Bobby Steels was the captain of the winning team and Mickey Reed was captain of the other.

Some of the stories which were read to the tiny tots this week were "Faraway Meadow," "The Bandana Bunny," "Clear the Track," "Little Leo" and "Lost Little Lamb."

Edgewood News

Now that the weather has been good the children have been bringing their pets to the playground. Sandra Lyon is conducting her own dog training school with Lady, her own puppy, as her prize pupil. Barbara Sears is usually seen with her dog, Candy. Doug King checked his pet rats with the Director, Bobbie Carroll.

Michael Sussman and his cousin, Glenda Escott, tried their hand at archery the other day. Glenda soon developed a better aim and scored more points than anyone at the playground.

Michael Steele played basketball for the first time this week and amazed himself and the other second graders with his skill. Nick Carrassi and Mike Sullivan have developed some tricky team plays.

Patty Root, Tina Enberg, Tommy Enberg, Donny Bridges and Jimmy Reeder all decided that toy cap pistols are not good play toys.

Frankie Sears is now back at the playground after being sick with the measles. He is now seen at the playground playing Dodgeball with Susan Green.

Westlake News

Tetherball has been on the upswing at Westlake with all the age groups competing. Dick Milkovich, the director, is planning a tetherball tournament in the near future for all ages. The girls and the boys have a softball series going on and at the present time the boys are leading 2 games to 1.

With Joyce Averell and Gail Merlo finding their batting eye, the boys will have to be on their toes for the next game.

District Delegates Named By Jeff PTA

Jefferson Union high school PTA met Thursday evening, March 12, at the high school.

Brownie Troop No. 30 and Girl Scout Troop No. 149 displayed the flag and led the Pledge of Allegiance. Shalon Wilcox, one of the Brownies, read the character thought. The following were selected as delegates to the district meeting: Mesdames Glenn Blackburn, John Eason, William Hobbs, Albert D'Isep, and Robert Pool.

The nominating committee submitted their report and it was accepted. The new officers selected for the high school PTA for the next term were as follows: Mrs. Everett Heagney, president; Sanford Hannah, honorary vice president; Mrs. Robert Pool, vice president; Mrs. Frank Lousanau, recording secretary; Mrs. Ted Hopman, financial secretary; Mrs. James Mullen, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Albert D'Isep, treasurer; Mrs. Marjorie Reandeau, auditor; Mrs. Abe Gensel, historian.

Mrs. Stanford Hannah introduced the chairman of the student panel, Jim Butenhoff.

The students on the panel were Ray Richardson, Carol Bertelli, Florian Maroney, Verda Walker, Garry McFall, Andy Vranich, Harry Miller, Rudy Schubert and John Geertsen.

Some of the questions discussed by the panel were: How much jurisdiction should parents have over your social life? Should parents pick the teen-agers friends? How much should you be permitted to use the family car? The students gave a good discussion on all of the subjects and showed their maturity of thought in their answers. The panel was enjoyed by all and it was suggested that a parent-student debate team might be formed.

Announcements: The home economcs classs invite parents and friends to a tea Thursday, March 26, at 2 p.m. in the high school auditorium. A pot luck dinner and whist will be held in April by the unit, date to be announced later. Next meeting will be April 9 at 8 p.m., and will be Installation of Officers.

Shot With Play Gun

A 13-year-old Green Oaks school student underwent plastic surgery in Palo Alto hospital last week after a gun he had fashioned blew up in his face.

Stanley O. Schnepple, superintendent of Ravenswood school district, investigated the incident, and said the experiment with homemade firearms began when one student at Green Oaks elementary school fashioned a crude pistol with a pipe capping one end.

Richard Plowman Jr., a school chum of the first boy, later came to school with his own version of a gun, mounted on a wooden stock with a five-inch barrel of ⅜-inch pipe.

Plowman later tried the gun and the breech blew off, the blast hitting him in the face.

Maurer Unveils

Before a packed house last week San Bruno Councilman William Maurer let fly his promised charges against City Manager Matt Slankard and revealed the results of his investigation of Slankard's application for the position.

Maurer claimed portions of Slankard's application, which won him the appointment as first city manager of San Bruno over some 50 other applicants, were "deliberately falsified."

Slankard's claim in his application that he graduated from the University of California in engineering, were labeled "false" by Maurer.

Slankard asked for four weeks to prepare his reply.

Easter Seal Drive Falls Short Of Mark

The Easter Seal drive which seeks funds to aid the county's handicapped children and adults has to date raised only a small percentage of its 1953 goal.

According to a report today from Carl Anderson, chairman of the Public Relations Committee for the county-wide organization, the returns from the more than 65,000 Easter Seal appeal letters mailed out two weeks ago have been very meager.

Less than two per cent of those receiving Easter Seal letters have mailed in contributions, Anderson said.

"This year," the committee chairman stated, "we are emphasizing the need for the dollar donation. If recipients of Easter Seals would offer only a dollar donation, the funds needed to carry on the society's vital services next year could be raised easily."

Warren Natwick, crippled children society board chairman, said that he was hopeful that further contributions for Easter Seals would be forthcoming from county residents during the weeks prior to Easter.

He said that this year's campaign has been scheduled to end on Easter Sunday. In the next three weeks more than $25,000 must be raised to finance the society's work with handicapped youngsters and adults, Natwick pointed out.

Junior Statesmen Club Is Organized At Jefferson High

An organization designed to make better citizens and to teach students the workings of the U. S. government has been formed at Jefferson high school.

The club, known as the Junior Statesmen, is endorsed by a number of high ranking officials, such as Governor Earl Warren, Senator William F. Knowland and other state officers.

The Junior Statesmen plan to begin circulating a petition asking that a measure permitting 18-year-olds to vote be put on the ballot at the next election.

The Jefferson club sent two representatives to a regional convention in Lafayette last week. Those attending dere Joseph L. Bocci, Jr., president of the local chapter, and Allen Anthony.

Members of the executive board of this club are: Joseph Bocci, Jr., president; Sidney Warren, vice president; Barbara Boucher, secretary; Beverly Hamilton, treasurer.

The four chairmen of the committee are: Leo Del Rosso, Irene Braitsch, Jackie Strieff and Andy Varanich.

The white spruce grows from Newfoundland to the Yukon Territory.

Water Need Critical

An emergency mass gathering was held in the Pacific Manor school recently to discuss a proposed $200,000 bond issue designed to provide additional water facilities in the North Coast County water district.

A. J. Brunette, chairman of the water board, declared that the growth of the area has placed such heavy demands on existing tanks that it may soon become impossible to provide water to all sections.

Earl P. Wilsey, district engineer, said that if a serious fire were to break out in any part of the district during a dry period, water pressure would not likely be sufficient to extinguish it.
